Course Content:

Memory & recall - techniques that support your participants to remember more and for longer

Thinking & learning Styles - design and create inclusive learning material

Experiential learning - 13 times more powerful than theory alone

Practical tools for training, learning and increased involvement

Graphic drawing skills

Introduction to reviewing

How to design, structure and deliver learning experiences

Practice in designing and delivering a training session, including feedback.

Who is it for?

Leaders and managers who are responsible for delivering information that needs to be understood

Trainers, coaches & mentors new to training and teaching

Anyone responsible for developing skills, knowledge & learning in others in the workplace

Organisations wanting to build their internal capability to deliver effective training.

Train the Trainer

Whether by the title 'trainer' or not, many of us deliver training every day. For some it might be showing a new colleague the ropes, for others it might be a more formal training role; delivering an induction process for new employees or mentoring someone in a new position. Whatever the context, many of us 'train' others every day. To create effective learning experiences, however, we need effective learning material. Not only this, we also need the skills to engage with the people we are working with and have the knowledge, understanding and skills to be able to adapt to different learning styles.

Our Train the Trainers courses are highly experiential programmes that will give you the fundamentals to design and deliver effective training sessions that you can be proud of. You will be more effective in any situation where it is important that people understand and remember the information being presented to them. We love the opportunity to share what we do. You will leave with a toolkit to be more creative & engaging and to create more active participation. You will learn how to deliver training that makes a real difference on a personal, social and organisational level.

Benefits:

- Build your internal capability to deliver excellent training
- Engage more of your audience
- Accelerate the learning and development of those with whom you work
- Meet more needs and less resistance
- Deliver training material that people understand and remember
- Training sessions that everyone looks forward to
- Run more effective meetings

Flexible delivery

We understand that taking your people out of the workplace for a long period of time can be challenging. We can run this Train the Trainers course over 5 full consecutive days, 5 half days followed by two full days, or as two modules – 2.5 days followed by 2 days

How Much?

We run this Train the Trainer course in-house; either at your organisation's premises or at a suitable venue of your choice. This Training for Trainers programme requires 8-12 people. The cost for this training is £795 per person. Excludes venue costs & trainer's travel/accommodation. Book before the end of

Contact: 0800 043 5730

info@developing-potential.co.uk www.developing-potential.co.uk